“Our school has a strong community feel, where every child is known and nurtured to integrate faith with life,” says Head of School, David Gaudi. “Families appreciate Saint Mark Lutheran School, with many two and three-generations returning for our strong academics and loving environment.”

The safe and caring K-8 school of nearly 200 prides itself on being a real “ohana,” where students are challenged by a rich and rigorous academic curriculum taught by quality teachers. Spiritual, physical, social and emotional growth rank high in learning expectations. Developing the “whole child,” the school offers art, band, choir, dramas, operettas and competitive sports teams.

Saint Mark makes learning a pleasure with small classes on a quiet, open and surprisingly large tree-lined 2.5-acre campus. Small by design and respected for academic excellence, the co-ed school has consistently prepared its graduates to be life-long learners, well-equipped to transition successfully to the high school of their choice. Saint Mark continues its strong commitment to its financial aid program, says Gaudi.

A new action plan to integrate relevant technology into the curriculum, part of Saint Mark’s ongoing school improvement endeavor, has provided students with a brand new computer lab, including 30 new computers, laptops and projectors for teachers.

“Our teachers are the heart and soul of our efforts to ensure that our graduates learn to think critically to make informed decisions; to practice the importance of respecting oneself, others and property; and to utilize their talents to glorify God and serve others,” says Gaudi.
