Photo Release

To streamline communications and support student learning, Saint Mark Lutheran School (“SMLS”) is utilizing the Internet and the latest technologies to develop and maintain its school web site at <http://www.smls-hawaii.org>. The SMLS web site is primarily used to publish school and related information for new, current and prospective students and their families. As such, student photographs and work may be included to highlight projects and activities. Student names will not be included with student photographs.

SMLS reserves the right to publish and copyright all still and videotaped photographs in which students appear while enrolled at SMLS. SMLS may transfer, use or cause to be used, these images in school brochures, newsletters, advertising, posters, displays, slide shows, videotapes, web sites, catalogs, and like publications or literature without limitations, reservations, or compensation.

Unless a written statement to the contrary is filed with the office of SMLS, all students, parents, and guardians give implicit permission and authorization to SMLS to use any student photograph that is taken or is authorized by a SMLS staff member for instructional or promotional purposes. By granting permission, students and their families and guardians release any and all claims against SMLS.

Complete and return this form to the classroom teacher or SMLS office only if permission is not granted.
